Center Stage – Your City. Your Stage.

Apply now for Berlin's free stage for creatives, clubs, and community initiatives.

You have something Berlin needs to see? Show it to us. From May to September 2026, Center Stage offers nonprofit Berlin-based clubs and organizations a platform to present their work – live and in the heart of the city.

We invite you to bring your projects to life on site and let Center visitors experience what makes your work special.

Whether it's a hands-on chess session, an open cheerleading class, or a workshop on wildlife conservation in Berlin – we're looking for initiatives from the worlds of art, culture, sports, gaming, and education.
